

Please do not weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy law with the "established business relationship" exemption. If I need anything from a company, I will contact the company. Otherwise, I don't want to be bothered with sales calls during my time at home. This is an important quality-of-life issue.